“One Night” to celebrate local non-profits

10 area non-profit organizations that will be honored guests at the second annual One Night, One Community, One Mission event put on by the Osceola Community Health Foundation.

One Night, presented by Sunway, Inc. of Centurria, brings together many of the grant recipients from OCHF’s 10-year history. This year’s guests of honor are Interfaith Caregivers, Lakes Region EMS, Community Referral Agency, St. Croix Valley EMS, Wild River Fitness, Amery Area Ambulance Service, County Line First Responders, Osceola Area Ambulance Service, Christian Community Home of Osceola, and Osceola Medical Center. Last year’s One Night event drew more than 230 people and raised more than $8,500 for participating non-profits.

“This is a wonderful opportunity to bring together and recognize the organizations that provide vital services to ensure the health of our communities,” said Sue Gerlach, OCHF director.

One Night will be August 9 at Chateau St. Croix Winery in St. Croix Falls, WI. Attendees will enjoy a chance to learn more about each of the non-profits while enjoying gourmet hors d’oeuvres, a silent auction and raffles. Tickets are $20 and are available by calling 715-294-5727 or at www.MyOCHF.com.

OCHF is a regional non-profit organization that has given more than $11.5 million to Osceola Medical Center and other community non-profits. The Foundation’s mission is building healthy communities by fostering charitable support for OMC and the health related needs of the people in the upper St. Croix Valley.
