Osceola Community Health Foundation presented $75,692 recently to the Mental Health Task Force of Polk County. These funds were raised at OCHF's annual Holiday Gala to support mental health programs for local children and their families. The task force will work with Polk County's Family Preservation and Support Project and the Osceola School District to provide vital mental health support for children and their families in school and at home. Sue Gerlach, OCHF's director, center, presented the check to, from left, Betsy Byker, Robbyn Bowman, Sue Sopiwnik and Sharron Ward of the task force and Peggy Weber from the school district.
